20 Years Of Changing Technology

Construction began on the 100 Building and the current Vocational Building in September, 1962. The school opened its doors in Fall, 1963 as Rowan Industrial Education Center. In March 1964, the Center officially became Rowan Technical Institute. The current Administration Building was constructed in 1969 and the Institute was accredited by the State Board of Higher Education. In 1976, the last two of the five current buildings were constructed: one to house the Learning Resource Center and Student Lounge, and the other the Health and Science Programs.

With Us From The Beginning

These five faculty and staff members have been here since the beginning and have some interesting memories.

* Nancy Lyerly remembers when she knew every student's name.

* Hilton Swindell remembers when he started teaching in a rented building.

* Raymond Gilbert remembers the first graduation being held in the computer room, with only ten graduates.

* Vernon Eanes remembers when there were no female students.

* George Evans remembers when there were only 79 students and seven faculty members in the entire school.

George Evans, Automotive

From Six To Twenty-Six

Not only has the campus grown, but the curriculum choices have grown also. In twenty years, twenty programs were added to the original six. These original six programs were Air Conditioning and Refrigeration, Welding, Electrician Trade, Drafting, Machinist Trade, and Radio and Television. And they're still going strong!!

Honored With Award

Only one Student Government Association was honored with an award at the Governor's State wide Volunteer Awards Ceremony. Our own David Cox accepted the award for the 1982-1983 Student Government Association. The event was held on Saturday, October 22, 1983 hosted by Governor and Mrs. Hunt in Asheville, N.C.

Earlier, David and others were honored at the Nine Who Care luncheon featuring Ted Koppel of A.B.C. News. Rowan Tech's SGA was one of the twenty-seven finalist for this award.

Halloween Party

The student body at RTC got "that party feeling" at the Halloween Party, sponsored by the SGA.

Nearly 600 students and faculty patiently waited in line for their turn to feast on punch, cookies, peanuts, potato chips, and candy. K-Hill, local disc jockey, provided the music which was a mixture of top-40 and beach music.

The highlight of the party was the Costume Contest. From all the contestants, three winners were chosen: Elaine Trexler, first; Lori Ridenhour, second; and Walter Goan, third. Other activities included a dance contest, jack-o-lantern contest, and balloon-dart game.

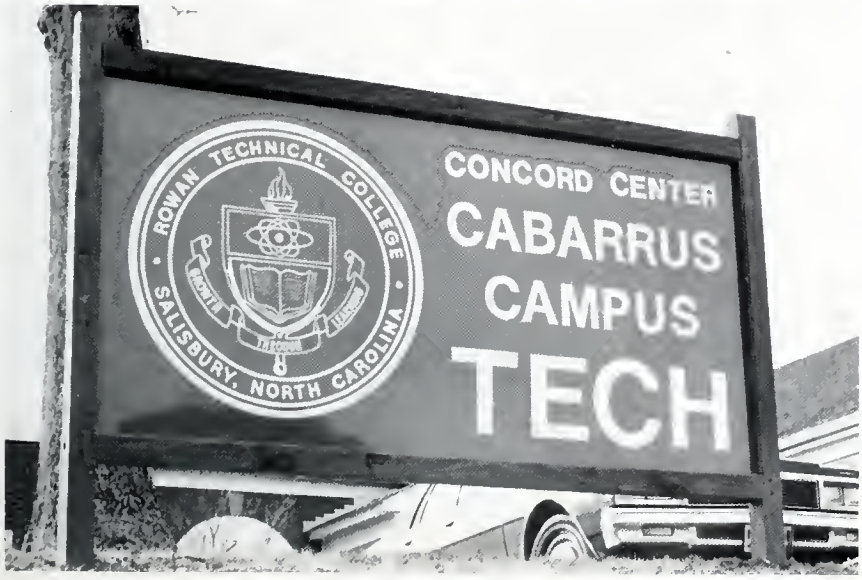
Evening School

Almost 50% of Rowan Tech's students attend night classes. Most of the same programs are offered at night that are offered during the day. Thus, those students who work during the day still have a chance to continue their education at night. All of the same services are also offered to evening students.

Cabarrus County

Rowan Tech has three satellite centers, one located in downtown Kannapolis, one at the old Carver School, and one located in Concord. Since the late 1960's, these centers have served the citizens of Cabarrus County by offering continuing education courses.

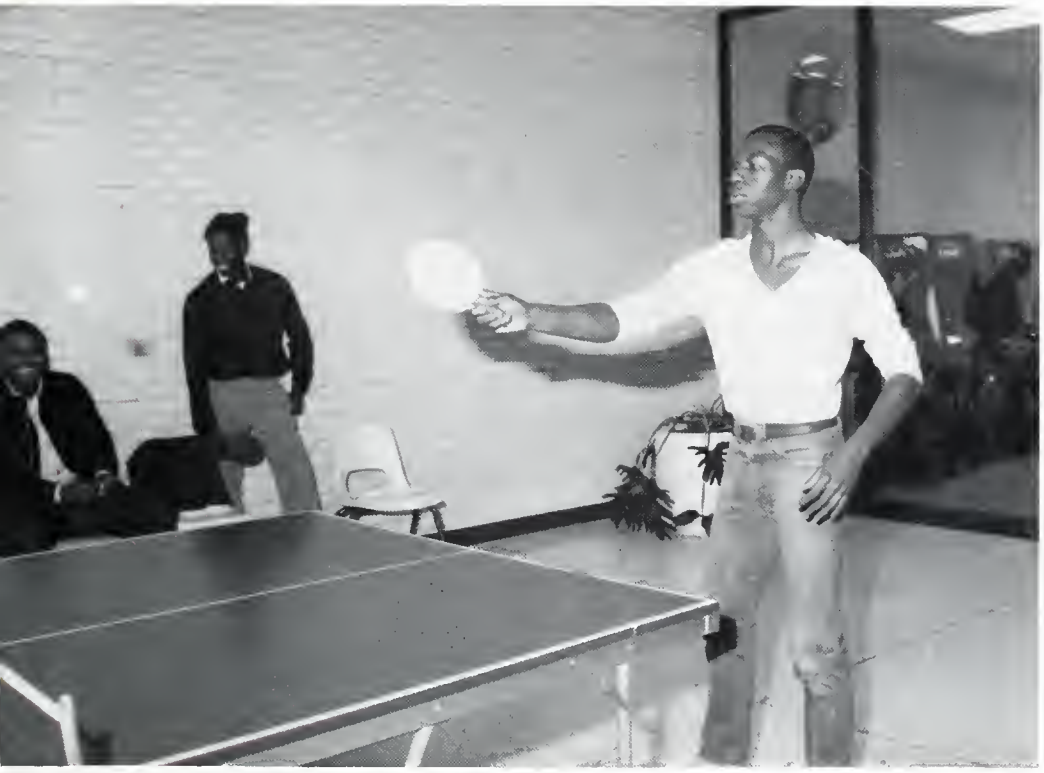
Rowan Tech, in an effort to expand its programs, will offer courses in the Business curriculi beginning in the Spring of 1984.



Ping-Pong Anyone?

Ping-Pong has become one of the favorite activities on campus. There are basically two types of players that can be found: the cool, laid-back player (lower right), and the experienced amateur (top left).

There were Singles and Doubles Tournaments this year. Twenty people were expected to participate, and the winner received a trophy and some bragging rights.



Steppin' Out

"Steppin' Out" was the theme of the annual Spring Fashion Show given this year. All students in the Fashion and Retailing class were required to model for the show as part of their grade. Local businesses furnished outfits for the 48 students who participated in the show.

James Jackson, Pam Seamon, and Patty Dwiggins discuss advertising for the Fashion Show.

Just as Winter Quarter seemed it would never end . . .

When February seemed more like the longest month of the year than the shortest . . .

When the campus was starting to look a little too barren and grey . . .

Then it snowed.

Perfectly timed to help us enjoy the winter rather than merely survive it, the snow made the familiar newly interesting — even beautiful.

Double Vision

Ellington Twins

Jan and Jane were born October 29, 1963. Both are majoring in Executive Secretarial Science.

Staton Twins

Laura and Sherry. Were they born on November 26, 1963 or January 27, 1964? Both are majoring in Business Administration.

Me And My Shadow

Is Rowan Tech blessed with twins? With five sets, what other answer can you give but ... yes? Or maybe not,

Are the Statons really twins? Your guess is as good as mine.

Intramural Basketball

Three women's teams and eight men's teams competed in the annual intramural basketball games held this year at Granite Quarry School. Different curriculi were pitted against each other. The games were strictly a student function and enjoyed by all.

WHO SAYS PRIDE DOESN'T COUNT?

That's what some critics say about American workers. They have no pride in their work, in their jobs or in the products they are making.

We don't agree. We know it is not true at Cannon.

Productivity, quality and customer service — the basics for manufacturing and selling consumer goods — continue to improve . . . rapidly.

To encourage and recognize individual employees whose work is consistently outstanding, they are now featured each month on the front page of the company newspaper.

How are they presented? As THE PRIDE OF CANNON, of course. Some of the winners are shown above at their jobs.

This is only one of many innovative ideas of David H. Murdock, the dynamic new owner of Cannon Mills Company. He seeks to make Cannon the most modern, productive and cost-effective textile company in the U.S. He, and the people of Cannon, are working hard together to achieve that goal.

And they are doing it — if you will pardon the expression — with great pride!

The 1984 yearbook was prepared by students who volunteered and enrolled in English 121-122. Most students went into the class with little or no experience. They came out with a good understanding of how a yearbook is put together and the pride of giving the school a yearbook.
